It is a great opportunity and experience to have this ~~prostate~~ Cancer awareness camp in our A.M.K.M Jain Centre. I thank Dr. Ananthkrishnan, his wife Gayatri Ananthkrishnan for conducting such a Noble service to our society. I also thank his Doctor Team, his staff, volunteers for conducting the camp so smoothly and systematically. It's very good awareness program and lot of people have got real benefit. I also thank Anderson Team for their bringing their team and providing their services in doing all blood tests.

Very good arrangements, very useful camp. Hats off.

Thanks to one and all.

Prostrate cancer awareness Free Medical Camp conducted by IPFC in association with S.A.M A.M. Jain Foundation is a needy one. All the officials of IPFC are kind enough to receive, suggest and helping to deduct and diagnose. Especially doctors are very nice persons to give proper instruction without any sort of expectation.

Not only my thanks but also my family members thanks is due to both organisations.

This programme is definitely useful for me. Question answer session and briefing about the disease and prevention is excellent by Dr. Ananthakrishnan. I am fully satisfied and I find this medical camp conducted elsewhere and stand alone performance compared to other camps I attended.

I do not know whether this organisation arrange for only Urology. If this type of camp conducted for other diseases, awareness about diseases will definitely improve amongst an.

Name: M. GURRASEKARAN / 9840692181.

Address: 1395 - Golden Colony,
MUNAPPUR - dt. 600050.

Age : 62 m

My father had this problem. When I was told of this news by the doctor, I was devastated. It was in the year 1976, I think. I knew nothing about this problem. The doctor said that he would "scrap" a little bit of his testicles and that's all. After the surgery, ~~he~~ my father was given a female hormone tablet for sometime. He lived more than 15 years after that surgery and he died of heart attack only and not of Prostate problem.

The above is my <sup>first</sup> acquaintance with this problem. I knew that this is a "male's" problem. This camp has given me an opportunity to know more about this problem.

This P.C. foundation is doing a good job. We were done with free testing and free consultation by eminent doctors, which otherwise would have cost us a few thousand.

Good job.

Pl continue.

This Camp organised by APPALO & Associates was nice. They have administered good service more than I expected. The doctors attended on me and their advice was par Excellence. These sort of Camps are much useful for those who do not have the knowledge over the prostatic. The Camp enable me to spread the knowledge for people who do not know about the prostatic and the causes.

Thanks a lot for your kind service.
